November 2013

Message from the Mayor

W. James Grogan
Mayor

Fall is here, there is more to change than just the weather and your clothes: it's a perfect time to swap out your not-so-good habits for better ones. Or if you have picked up some healthy habits over the summer, such as eating more local grown fruits and vegetables (Thank you local farmers markets and roadside stands!) and exercising (Hooray!), this is certainly not the time to let those habits slip away. Eat within reason, drive carefully during the holidays, and be careful putting up those decorations, so we can all enjoy the Thanksgiving and Christmas season. Thank you for allowing me to be your mayor. I am truly honored and blessed with this opportunity. Our city is the greatest place in the state to live and work. Together, we make it Dawsonville.

James Grogan

*City Hall will be closed on Thursday, November 28th
