Message from the Mayor

W. James Grogan
Mayor

Sprinter has arrived! That period of time when "Spr" (spring) is starting but "inter" (winter) is not complete. Oh, you know the signs; coughs from a winter cold that won't go away, sneezing, watery eyes from early spring allergies. Grass that is not grass but green weeds which we cut anyway; buds showing on trees and flowers starting to bloom, then you wake up with a dusting of snow on the ground. Rain and cold every other day; what is this? Good old North Georgia and Dawsonville weather is what's happening.

Sprinter is also March Madness time. College basketball is at its finest. But wait! The 2012-2013 Girls Varsity Basketball team of Dawson County High School went to the finals of 7-AAA classification. You did a great job, "Lady Tigers"! We celebrated their success this past Sunday, March 17th. It was a real joy to celebrate with this group of young ladies. Now a big "shout out" to our local restaurants that provided food for our celebration:

Bojangles	Deb's Diner	Peach Brandy Cottage	Food Lion
Krystal	Chick-Fil-A	Big D's BBQ	Pool Room
Old Towne Pizza	Subway	Varsity

Thank you for supporting this team on Sunday and all year long. This is why we are a great community; all working together for the greater good, leaving all egos at home.

Finally, I would be remiss not to mention the home-going of our own, Kenny "Soldier Boy" Stewart. Your community loves and misses you.

Sincerely,
